The PASS curriculum permits an enrolled student to complete a 90 seat hour high school course in as few as 35 days with support each week of an educator in your local school. To learn more, please visit www.semy.org and select PASS. Credit is issued by Sunnyside School District, Washington State. Your school retains the FTEs.

NOTE: Per NCAA, transcript the course as "PASS Engl IA (LA 8)" where Engl IA is the title of the PASS course completed and LA 8 is the title of your equivalent local course. If easier attach a supplemental letter to your local transcript identifying which courses were completed through the Washington State PASS Curriculum, School Code 851000.

To serve Washington Migrant Education Program qualified students through the Washington State PASS Program, contact Secondary Education for Migrant Youth, Sunnyside, WA at (509) 836-7500. Courses are provided at no cost to district or family.

To serve all other student athletes through the Washington State PASS Program, contact PASS Course Sales, Sunnyside, WA. Toll free 888-837-2169. Course cost updated at www.semy.org/pcs.cfm. June '09: $120-150 per ½ credit course.
